

that I think the probability is you will be off very soon - Sir John says he is determined to attend you if he can be spared.

Thursday.

I have just paid another visit to Mr. Cutler - she has recovered your gun from one of her sons in rather a shabby condition, and I have given it into the particular charge of Cesar, who will deliver it to you.

Mr. Cutler says that her husband never received the rifle gun from you, and if it was sent it must have miscarried, as he frequently lamented the want of
