

it - if you can find any letter in which he mentions having received it, I will have one more conference with her on the subject.

Sr & Miss Prince are safe at St John's the rest of the family sailed from Halifax last Sunday, of course are hourly expected.

I hear nothing new by them except that McMorwood of the 33<sup>d</sup> is trying by a Court martial of having sided with Desbarres in the squabbles between him & Col York, and it is thought he will lose his commission. Mr Cottman removes here in about
