

1804.

January.

72

Sunday.

1.

Very pleasant weather. —

2^d.

Last night there was an extraordinary fall of snow (near 2 feet.) Mr. W. with Mr. Day attempted to take the Ladies to the Ball. Met the Lieut & return. Ball adjourn. —

3^d.

Mild rainy weather.

4th.

Another severe snow storm. —
Mr. Lee of Rustegouche — here. —
Violent wind & drifting snow.
Mr. Bull, & servant froze to death.

5th.

The Lieut went to town in snow shoes in the morn. Mr. Lee stay. till 6. & then set off on horseback.

6th.

No attempt has yet been made to break the road on the river.
Tom return. Joe set off for home.
— Heard of our Gray hog at Andersons.
very severe night.

7th.

Nothing remarkable. — Hannah & Sarah went to town in a horse sled.

10th.

Bad weather. severely cold.

12th.

All the girls return. — Pen went home.

13th.

Weather moderates.

14.

George went home to return on Monday.

Sunday.

15th.

Tom went down in the evening & set off for S. John's the 16th in the morning. Moderate weather.

17th.

His. John Wood a soldier at 6^h doll. of month. to commence 12 o'clock this day. NB: He has rec. from Mr. W. for trousers for 10/7^h.

18.

Kill. a fat weather. The most tremendous storm I ever knew lasts all night of 17th.

19th.

Extreme cold weather. The rascal of a soldier went off. Mare hunt

Thursday.

26.

Tom return. Weather moderates.

28.

Very pleasant Capt Sprunk &c. here.

Sunday.

29.

Pleasant winter weather.

31st.

Cold. Saw pig. & lost the letter by the severity of the weather.