

But the Governments of Nova Scotia and New-Brunsuwich have refused all negotiations in the business.

Wherefore - If any of their Subjects shall be sufferers in the final result, The United States, or either of them, cannot be considered as the reprehensible cause of their misfortune.

Thereby Certify

That the before going Book consisting of two hundred and seventytwo pages, contains a true Copy of the Argument filed, and Papers deposited in my Office at Boston the sixteenth day of August 1797, by the Agent of The United States of America, in support of the Claim preferred by Him.
