

✓ be limited and ^bfounded equally between the said La Tour, and his said son, if they shall see cause.

✓ Upon Condition. That the said Knight De La Tour and his said son, ~~by these presents~~ ^{by these presents} doth promise to be good and faithful vassals of the said Sovereigns. Lords, The Kings of Scotland, and their heirs and successors, and to give unto him all obedience and assistance to the reducing of the people of the said country, and to entertain good amity and correspondency with the said Lord Alex.

two or three times over vid his copy in remembrance on Supplement argument

ander - promising also on his part, amity, society and correspondency assistance and protection from His said Majesty, and from himself his Lieutenant. — Furthermore. and over and above, the said Lord Alexander

Alexander granteth unto the said Knight De La Tour, and unto his said son, and unto their heirs, and successors, and assigns forever, the right of Admiralty, in all the extent of their said Lands, and limits.
The said Lord Alexander and Knight De La Tour, to hold and fulfill the contents of what is above, with ever in any ^{part} whatsoever violating thereof, upon the obliging of all their goods, present and to come, and upon the penalty of the ordinances appointed by the Laws established on the one part, and the other to the violater hereof. The said Lord Alexander, promising over and above, to make on cause to be made more ample. writing, in good and due form, according and conformably unto the said