

At an Inferior Court of Common Pleas held at Frederick and for the County of York of the Term of June thirty ninth year of the Reign of King George the Annoque Domini 1799.

Tuesday 11th June 1799

The Court opened with the usual Proclamations. and Adjourned till Thursday next Thursday 13th June 1799

The Court met pursuant to adjournment
Present as before

Iedediah Mason } In assumpsit
v^s William Stage } On motion of John M. Bliss Attorney for Plaintiff The Court assess the damages at ten pounds twelve shillings and seven pence and order Judgement for said sum together with costs. Jacob Ellegood

Iedediah Cooke } In Trespass upon Promise
v^s Stephen Cobourn } On like motion The Court assess the damages at nine pounds and four pence and the Judgement for said sum together with costs.
Jacob Ellegood

Enoch Gerrish } The like
v^s Stephen Cobourn } On like motion The Court assess the damages at ten pounds nine shillings and three pence
and order Judgement for said sum together
with costs. Jacob Ellegood

Adjourned till 11 o'clock tomorrow

Friday 14th June 1799

Met pursuant to adjournment &
Adjourned till Tomorrow

Saturday 16th June 1799

Met pursuant to adjournment
Present as before

Abraham Pine }
v^s William Anderson } The Coroner returns Process served Ordered that the Defendant plead in twenty days after service of a copy of the Declaration or Judgment on motion of W. Withmore Junr.