

Present
Stair Agnew Esq^r

The Jury having returned into Court and being called on by Joseph Canal they have not agreed on their Verdict - the Court direct them to retire, and Samuel Buchanan Constable is sworn to attend them.

The Jury being returned & called on by Joseph Canal their foreman they find for the Plff. Six Pounds six Shillings & 6 Cts & so they say all.

Mr. Odell on the part of the Def. moves for time until the next Term to shew cause why the Verdict should be set aside.

Mr. Bliss on the Part of the Plff moves the Court to sign the judgement, ~~whereupon~~ ^{whereupon} the Court will take time to consider until the next Term.

At an Inferior Court of Common Pleas held at Fredericktown ⁱⁿ the County of York, of the Term of March A D 1807.

Present
Stair Agnew Esq^r

The Court opened with the usual Proclamations.

The Court adjourned until Saturday 11 O'clock.

Saturday 19 March 1807
The Court met Pursuant to Adj^t

Present
Stair Agnew Esq^r

Cornelius Ackerman

James Hamble

} On Motion W. I. M. D. Esq^r Atty for the Plff. The Court Order Judgement on the Verdict & that they and Cornelius recover his and Damages by the Jurors aforesd amounting to Six pounds six shillings & three pence Cts & so in the whole to thirteen Pounds nine shillings & three pence this 19 day of March 1807.

Stair Agnew J. C. p.

James Eagles

James Boon

} On Motion of Wheeler and

Atty for the Plff. Order & Judg^t by default with Damages to Five Pounds ten Shillings & nine pence & Cts of suit to Two Pounds fifteen shillings & nine pence amounting in the whole to Eight Pounds six shillings and six pence Order final Judgement for the same 19 March 1807.

Stair Agnew J. C. p.